

Fourth Edition of the Silvia Sandano International Award

The Silvia Sandano International Award is granted annually to a jurist who is particularly distinguished for the contribution he has made in supporting the fundamental rights of others, affirming the superior value of the law and protecting the dignity of others without discriminating against one's creed, sex, ethnicity, language, political opinion, economical or social condition.

Silvia Sandano Scholarship 2009

The Silvia Sandano Scholarship is awarded to a young graduate that has done particularly well in their studies and is deserving of a financial award to further their education.

Under the aegis of the Presidency of the Republic of Italy, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Youth,

Scholarly Convention

Authoritarianism and Democracy in Criminal Law, Twenty Years After the Fall of the Berlin Wall

Rome, November 6, 2009

9,30 - 18,00

Aula Giulio Cesare

Campidoglio, Municipality of Rome

“Authoritarianism and Democracy in Criminal Law, Twenty Years After the Fall of the Berlin Wall”

Morning Session

The evolution of criminal law from the dictatorship to democracy

Presiding: Prof. Att. Gilberto Lozzi

Chair Professor of Civil Procedure at the Sapienza University of Rome

Honorary Chairman of the Silvia Sandano Association

9:30 a.m. Welcoming speech by

LL.D. Sergio Gallo

Parliamentary Private Secretary of the Mayor of Rome

Prof. Mario Caravale

Dean of the Faculty of Law at Sapienza University of Rome

LL.D. Simone Maassen-Krupke

Head of the Legal and Consular offices of the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany

10:00 a.m. Introductory speech by

Prof. Carlo Fiore

Emeritus professor of Criminal Law at University Federico II of Naples

10:30 a.m. Tribute speech by Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Claus Roxin

Prof. Sergio Moccia

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at University Federico II of Naples

11:00 a.m. Lectio magistralis:

From dictatorship to democracy.

The evolution of trends in German criminal law and civil procedure

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Claus Roxin

Emeritus professor of criminal law at the University of Munich of Bavaria

12:00 Silvia Sandano International Award Ceremony 2009

to be granted to Professor Claus Roxin

Afternoon Session

Authoritarian elements in the present-day democratic criminal system

Presiding: Prof. Att. Alfonso Maria Stile

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at Sapienza University of Rome

President of the Scientific Committee of the Silvia Sandano Association

2:30 p.m. Are we moving towards an enemy criminal law?

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Winfried Hassemer

Emeritus professor of criminal law at the University of Frankfurt former Vice President of the German Constitutional Court

3:00 p.m. Political evolution and regression of criminal law

Prof. Dr. Santiago Mir Puig

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at the University of Barcelona

3:30 p.m. Problematic aspects of criminal law in democracy

Prof. Giovanni Fiandaca

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at the University of Palermo

4:00 p.m. Awarding of the Silvia Sandano Scholarship 2009

Coffee Break

4:30 p.m. New forms of public rule and criminal law

Prof. Att. Filippo Sgubbi

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at the University of Bologna

5:00 p.m. Democratic versus authoritarian legitimation: two paradigms of criminal law

Prof. Att. Carlo Enrico Paliero

Chair Professor of Criminal Law at the State University of Milan

5:30 p.m. Open discussion

6:00 p.m. Conclusions

Prof. Att. Alfonso Maria Stile

The conference sessions will be translated simultaneously in English, German and Spanish.